

Inseego Trusted by Restore PLC to Enable Driver Safety Initiative in the United Kingdom

April 18, 2018

Ctrack Fleet Management solution ensures safety for the UK's largest office service provider

SAN DIEGO & LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 18, 2018-- Inseego Corp. (Nasdaq: INSG), an industry leader in solutions for intelligent mobile enterprises, today announced a renewal of a three-year Ctrack Fleet Management services contract with Restore PLC (LON: RST), the largest UK-owned office service provider with a network of 100 locations nationwide.

The integration of Inseego's solution enables Restore to monitor and manage their fleet which transports sensitive documents and IT systems for their 20,000 Enterprise Class customer base comprised of Financial Times Stock Exchange (FTSE) 100 companies, legal and financial firms, municipalities and national health trusts. Enhancements as part of the renewal include advanced telematics targeting improved road safety, reduced environmental impact and enhanced duty of care as part of Restore's recently launched driver behavior initiative.

"We have been using Ctrack Online very effectively for a number of years to gain peace of mind that our employees, vehicles and loads are safe and secure," said Chris Miles, Fleet Manager at Restore. "We are however, committed to operating a responsible fleet, so we will now be making use of the system's impressive functionality to better understand driver performance and encourage improved driving styles as part of a recently launched initiative to improve driver safety."

"Restore has been a key fleet management customer for several years, as they are always looking to find new ways to improve and optimize their fleet operations," said Chris Lytle, EVP of Enterprise SaaS Solutions at Inseego. "Our Ctrack solution provides business intelligence related to driver safety, workforce hours of service and route management. The Ctrack solution is compliant with the latest governmental regulations and offers complete visibility from a single portal, which ultimately delivers an exceptional customer experience."
