

Inseego Names Jacques Fradet as Senior Vice President Operations

July 19, 2018

Move aligns integrated organization effectively for projected growth

SAN DIEGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 19, 2018-- Inseego Corp. (NASDAQ: INSG), an industry leader in solutions for mobile enterprises, today announced that Jacques Fradet has joined the Company as Senior Vice President of Operations, reporting directly to Steve Smith, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

"New product development in device technologies such as 5G and Industrial IoT combined with our relentless focus on high value verticals has created the need for a proven leader like Jacques Fradet to help us align our global operations," said Steve Smith, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Inseego Corp. "Jacques has extensive experience in leading teams in the midst of transformation by managing fast growing technology portfolios, establishing worldwide supply chains, and streamlining distribution across multinational companies. He will be instrumental to driving growth, expanding our portfolio, and sharpening our operations focus."

Jacques brings nearly 30 years of experience driving companies to achieve profitability by effectively connecting the dots between operational goals and the impact on financials.

Prior to joining Inseego, Jacques spent 12 years at Kyocera Communications in a number of senior leadership roles. He was most recently Divisional Vice President of Operations, responsible for supply chain, manufacturing, fulfillment, logistics, engineering and customer care for an organization with over $500M in annual revenue. During his tenure, he led a global team that accomplished aggressive balance sheet and cash flow goals and doubled existing service revenue streams. Prior to Kyocera, Jacques held several leadership titles in the areas of finance, operations and engineering at public corporations including Qualcomm Personal Electronics, Palm Inc., Denso, Hughes and Linkabit.

Jacques earned a Master of Business Administration from the University of San Diego and a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from the University of California, San Diego.

"I am thrilled to join such an incredibly talented management team," said Jacques Fradet, SVP Operations at Inseego Corp. "It is an exciting time for Inseego and it is a privilege to be a part of the company's next chapter."
