

Ashish Sharma Named President of IoT & Mobile Solutions at Inseego

February 20, 2020

SAN DIEGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 20, 2020-- Inseego Corp. (Nasdaq: INSG), a pioneer of 5G and intelligent IoT device-to-cloud solutions, today announced that Ashish Sharma has been promoted to President of IoT & Mobile Solutions.

"Ashish has a proven track record of bringing innovative 5G and IoT products to our customers and plays a vital role in our mission to drive 5G market growth around the world," said Dan Mondor, Inseego Chairman and CEO. "In this role, he continues to focus on strategies for accelerating Inseego's 5G global leadership position and is responsible for advanced technology, product line management and engineering."

Sharma has served as the company's Executive Vice President IoT & Mobile Solutions since joining the company in September 2017 and also served as the company's Chief Marketing Officer. With a diverse background in sales, marketing, strategy, product management and engineering, he has brought numerous highly innovative products to market and helped build multibillion-dollar brands in the mobile industry for companies such as Qualcomm, Ericsson, Alvarion, FreeWave and Spectralink. Prior to joining Inseego, Sharma was Chief Marketing Officer at Spectralink where he authored a new end-to-end mobility vision and strategy for the company for multiple enterprise segments.

Sharma holds a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from the University of District of Columbia, a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering from George Mason University and a Master of Business Administration from the UCLA Anderson School of Management in Finance, Marketing and Strategy.

"At Inseego, I've found a combination of scale, innovation and a company purpose that's so compelling to me personally. It is truly an honor to lead the IoT & Mobile Solutions business at Inseego," said Sharma. "I look forward to building upon the Inseego brand and our incredible progress in making 5G a reality. I can't think of a more exciting time to be part of the Inseego leadership team."
