Novatel Wireless Appoints General John D. Wakelin to Board of Directors

SAN DIEGO, May 20, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Novatel Wireless, Inc. (Nasdaq: NVTL), a leading provider of wireless broadband solutions, today announced its board of directors has appointed General John D. Wakelin (U.S. Army, Retired) to the board effective May 18, 2009.

"We are honored to welcome General Wakelin as a member of our board of directors," said Peter Leparulo, chief executive officer for Novatel Wireless. "His distinguished career with Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC), extensive communications experience in the U.S. Army and broad industry knowledge of telecommunications will make him a valuable addition to our board."

General Wakelin brings to Novatel Wireless a wealth of experience having worked in senior executive and business development roles at SAIC for the past 20 years, a Fortune 500 scientific, engineering, and technology applications company that uses its deep domain knowledge to solve problems of vital importance to the nation and the world, in national security, energy and the environment, critical infrastructure, and health. At SAIC, General Wakelin oversaw numerous programs in large scale computing, telecommunications systems, and complex enterprise software systems for the public and private sector.

He retired as Brigadier General for the Army where he served for 30 years in a number of roles, culminating in the Joint Staff as Deputy Director for Command Control and Communications for the Joint Chiefs of Staff under Presidents Reagan and Bush and as Deputy Commander for Research and Development for the U.S. Army Communications Electronics Command at Fort Monmouth, NJ. He is a specialist in communications and electronics and automated communications systems that span multiple communication links, including radio, wire, fiber optics, television and satellite systems.

General Wakelin is a graduate of the University of San Francisco earning a Bachelor of Science in Philosophy with extensive studies in Electronic Physics. Prior to deploying to Indonesia to install the nationwide INDOCOM Program, the Army assigned him to San Diego State University where he completed all graduate level course work in Social Psychology for the Army's Foreign Area Officer Program. General Wakelin also attended the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and National War College. He is a member of the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association and the Association of the United States Army.
