Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On March 24, 2023, Inseego Corp. (the “Company”) received a written notice from the staff (the “Staff”) of the Listing Qualifications Department of The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”), notifying the Company that, for the 30 consecutive business day period between February 9, 2023 through March 23, 2023, the Company’s common stock, $0.001 par value per share (the “Common Stock”), had not maintained a minimum bid price of $1.00 per share, required for continued listing on The Nasdaq Global Select Market pursuant to Nasdaq Listing Rule 5450(a)(1) (the “Minimum Bid Price Requirement”). The Nasdaq’s written notice does not result in the immediate delisting of the Common Stock from The Nasdaq Global Select Market; however, an indicator of the Company’s non-compliance will be displayed with quotation information related to the Common Stock on NASDAQ.com and NASDAQTrader.com.

In accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A) (the “Compliance Period Rule”), the Company has 180 calendar days, or until September 20, 2023 (the “Compliance Date”), to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. According to the written notice, if, at any time during this 180-day period, the closing bid price for the Common Stock is at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, as required under the Compliance Period Rule, the Staff will provide written confirmation of compliance and the Common Stock will remain listed on The Nasdaq Global Select Market.

If the Company does not regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement by the Compliance Date, the Company may be eligible for an additional 180 calendar day compliance period. To qualify, the Company would be required to transfer its listing to The Nasdaq Capital Market and meet the continued listing requirement for the market value of publicly held shares and all other applicable initial listing standards for The Nasdaq Capital Market, with the exception of the Minimum Bid Price Requirement, and would need to provide written notice to Nasdaq of its intention to cure the deficiency during the additional 180-day compliance period. As part of its review process, the Staff will make a determination of whether it believes the Company will be able to cure this deficiency.

If it appears to the Staff that the Company will not be able to cure the deficiency during the additional 180-day compliance period, then the Staff will provide written notice to the Company that the Common Stock will be subject to delisting. At that time, the Company may appeal the Staff’s delisting determination to a Nasdaq Hearing Panel. There can be no assurance that, if the Company receives a delisting notice and appeals the delisting determination by the Staff to a Hearing Panel, such appeal would be successful.

The Company intends to monitor the closing bid price of its Common Stock and is considering actions that it may take in response to this notification in order to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will regain compliance with such requirement.
