Novatel Wireless Reports Third Quarter 2016 Financial Results

SaaS, Software and Services Revenues Increased at an Annualized Rate of 36% during the Third Quarter

Improved Adjusted EBITDA Achieved for Fourth Consecutive Quarter

Subscribers for Ctrack® Fleet Management Telematics Solutions Grew at an Annualized Rate of 20% during the Third Quarter

SAN DIEGO—November 3, 2016 -- Novatel Wireless, Inc. (NASDAQ: MIFI), a leading provider of solutions for the Internet of Things (“IoT”), including software-as-a-service (“SaaS”) solutions for the fleet telematics market, announced financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2016.

“Novatel Wireless has been on an incredible journey over the past 12 months. With the pending sale of our MiFi business expected to close in the first quarter of 2017, the Company’s transformation into a provider of comprehensive IoT solutions is nearly complete. We now have approximately 590,000 subscribers to the Company’s high-margin SaaS, software and services offerings, with 20% annualized growth in subscribers to the Company’s Ctrack fleet management telematics solutions during the third quarter,” said Sue Swenson, Chair and CEO of Novatel Wireless. “With another record quarter for SaaS, software and services revenues driving the Company to a fourth consecutive quarter of improved adjusted EBITDA, I look forward to a brighter future as we move beyond our hardware roots and emerge as a pure-play IoT solutions provider.”

Third Quarter 2016 Financial Highlights

The Company announced the following U.S. GAAP (“GAAP”) financial results for the third quarter of 2016:

- Revenue increased by 12.2% to $60.9 million in the third quarter of 2016, compared to $54.3 million in the third quarter of 2015.
- Revenue from SaaS, software and services increased to $14.8 million in the third quarter of 2016, from $2.2 million in the third quarter of 2015, as the Company continued its focus on IoT SaaS and services solutions, including the Ctrack® telematics solutions (“Ctrack”) that the Company acquired in the fourth quarter of 2015. Revenue from SaaS, software and services increased to a record 24.3% of the Company’s total revenue in the third quarter of 2016, compared to 4.1% of total revenue in the third quarter of 2015.
- Revenue from hardware products was $46.1 million in the third quarter of 2016, a decrease of 11.3% from $52.0 million in the third quarter of 2015, as the Company continues to strategically de-emphasize lower margin hardware-only sales in favor of bundled solutions that include higher-margin SaaS, software and services offerings.
- Revenue from Ctrack products, which include a mix of hardware and SaaS, software and services sold as a bundled telematics solution, was $16.6 million in the third quarter of 2016.
- Net loss was ($18.6 million), or ($0.34) per share, in the third quarter of 2016, compared to a net loss of ($20.8 million), or ($0.38) per share, in the third quarter of 2015. Net loss in the third quarter of 2016 includes a $2.8 million legal settlement entered into by the Company in September 2016 in connection with a breach of contract claim related to the Company’s hardware products, a $2.4 million reduction in the gain recognized in the second quarter associated with the Company’s divestiture of certain hardware modules and related assets in April 2016, $2.6 million of impairment charges primarily related to certain developed technologies acquired with Feeney Wireless (“FW”) in March 2015, and $3.3 million of other charges related to the Company’s acquisition and divestiture activities.
- As of September 30, 2016, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $17.2 million, with no amounts drawn down on its revolving credit facility with Wells Fargo Bank.

The Company also announced the following non-GAAP financial results for the third quarter of 2016. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures to the Company’s GAAP financial results is included in the tables accompanying this news release:

- Non-GAAP gross profit increased by 56.7% to $23.5 million in the third quarter of 2016, from $15.0 million in the third quarter of 2015, driven by a combination of increased total revenues and the contribution from the Company’s Ctrack and FW-branded SaaS, software and services revenues. Ctrack and FW were both acquired by the Company during 2015.

Overall non-GAAP gross margin increased to a record 38.7% in the third quarter of 2016, compared to 27.7% in the third quarter of 2015, as the Company continued its transition toward an improved mix of higher-margin IoT solutions with significant SaaS and recurring revenue components.

- Non-GAAP gross margin on SaaS, software and services was 67.3% in the third quarter of 2016, compared sequentially to 74.2% in the second quarter of 2016, primarily driven by revenues from high-margin SaaS and software solutions delivered by Ctrack and FW, partially offset by increased revenues from larger telematics customers. SaaS, software and services revenues were not a meaningful contributor to the Company's revenues in the third quarter of 2015, as the Ctrack acquisition did not occur until the fourth quarter of 2015.
- Non-GAAP gross margin on hardware products increased to 29.5% in the third quarter of 2016, compared to 25.4% in the third quarter of 2015, primarily as a result of reduced sales of lower-margin legacy hardware products in the third quarter of 2016.
- The Company's Ctrack telematics solutions which include a mix of hardware, SaaS, software and services, generated non-GAAP gross margins of 63.3% in the third quarter of 2016, continuing to drive the Company's overall gross margin expansion since the Company's acquisition of Ctrack in the fourth quarter of 2015.
- Non-GAAP operating expenses were $23.3 million in the third quarter of 2016, compared to $16.3 million in the third quarter of 2015, an increase of 42.9%, primarily due to the acquisition of Ctrack in the fourth quarter of 2015. During the third quarter of 2016, the Company implemented restructuring initiatives intended to improve its strategic focus on its most profitable business lines while de-prioritizing certain hardware-only product lines to non-carrier customers.
- Adjusted EBITDA increased to $2.3 million in the third quarter of 2016, compared sequentially to $1.7 million in the second quarter of 2016, and also compared year-over-year to ($0.3 million) in the third quarter of 2015. Adjusted EBITDA improved in the third quarter of 2016 due to the Company's emphasis on growing SaaS, software and services revenue, while also rationalizing the costs associated with its hardware business, in an effort to generate improved performance across multiple areas of the Company. Adjusted EBITDA contributed by Ctrack's telematics solutions was $2.7 million in the third quarter of 2016.
- Non-GAAP net loss for the third quarter of 2016 was ($1.8 million), or ($0.03) per share, compared sequentially to ($3.4 million), or ($0.06) per share, in the second quarter of 2016, and also compared year-over-year to ($1.9 million), or ($0.04) per share, in the third quarter of 2015, as the Company continues to integrate its acquisition of Ctrack and transition toward an improved mix of higher-margin IoT solutions with significant SaaS and recurring revenue components.

Industries Holdings (H.K.) Limited (“TCL”). Effective November 9, 2016, the Company will be known as Inseego Corp. (“Inseego”), the name of the new holding company. The new corporate name is part of a branding initiative focused on the Company’s IoT strategy and product roadmap, including its SaaS solutions for the fleet telematics market, after the sale of the Company’s mobile broadband business (including its MiFi® branded hotspots and USB modem product lines) to TCL. The divestiture to TCL is expected to close in the first quarter of 2017.

As part of its branding initiative, the Company will trade as “INSG” on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, effective at the start of trading on November 9, 2016.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Some of the information presented in this news release may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In this context, forward-looking statements often address expected future business and financial performance and often contain words such as “may,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “project,” “will” and similar words and phrases indicating future results. The information presented in this news release related to our outlook for the fourth quarter ending December 31, 2016 and our future business outlook, the future demand for our products, the expected impact of acquisition, divestiture and restructuring activities, statements made by Sue Swenson, the Company’s plans to reorganize its business by creating a new holding company structure, including the timing thereof and the benefits expected to be realized from the new structure, as well as other statements that are not purely statements of historical fact, are forward-looking in nature. These forward-looking statements are made on the basis of management’s current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements. We therefore cannot guarantee future results, performance or achievements. Actual results could differ materially from our expectations.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Company’s expectations are set forth as risk factors in the Company’s SEC reports and filings and include (1) the future demand for wireless broadband access to data and fleet management software and services, (2) the growth of wireless wide-area networking and fleet management software and services, (3) customer and end-user acceptance of the Company’s current product and service offerings and market demand for the Company’s anticipated new product and service offerings, (4) increased competition and pricing pressure from participants in the markets in which the Company is engaged, (5) dependence on third party manufacturers and key component suppliers worldwide, (6) the success of the Company’s corporate development activities, including integration of Ctrack and FW and divestitures of lines of business that are not essential to the Company’s strategy, (7) unexpected liabilities or expenses, (8) the Company’s ability to introduce new products and services in a timely manner, (9) litigation, regulatory and IP developments related to our products or components of our products, (10) dependence on a small number of customers for a significant portion of the Company’s revenues and (11) the Company’s plans and expectations relating to acquisitions, divestitures, strategic relationships, international expansion, software and hardware developments, personnel matters and cost containment initiatives, including restructuring activities.

These factors, as well as other factors described in the reports filed by the Company with the SEC (available at www.sec.gov), could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the Company’s forward-looking statements. The Company assumes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements for any reason, even if new information becomes available or other events occur in the future, except as otherwise required pursuant to applicable law and our on-going reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Novatel Wireless, Inc. has provided financial information in this news release that has not been prepared in accordance with GAAP. Non-GAAP gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, adjusted EBITDA, net loss and net loss per share exclude restructuring charges, share-based compensation expense, amortization of the debt discount and debt issuance costs associated with the Company’s convertible notes, a legal settlement in September 2016 related to the Company’s hardware products, a reduction in the gain recognized in the second quarter of 2016 associated with the Company’s divestiture of certain hardware modules and related assets in April 2016, impairment charges primarily related to certain developed technologies acquired with FW in March 2015, and other charges related to the Company’s acquisition and divestiture activities. Adjusted EBITDA also excludes interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (unrelated to acquisitions and the convertible notes), and foreign currency transaction gains and losses.

Non-GAAP gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, adjusted EBITDA, net loss and net loss per share are supplemental measures of our performance that are not required by, or presented in accordance with, GAAP. These non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as an analytical tool and are not intended to be used in isolation or as a substitute for gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, net loss, net loss per share or any other performance measure determined in accordance with GAAP. We present non-GAAP gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, adjusted EBITDA, net loss and net loss per share because we consider each to be an important supplemental measure of our performance.

Management uses these non-GAAP financial measures to make operational decisions, evaluate the Company's performance, prepare forecasts and determine compensation. Further, management believes that both management and investors benefit from referring to these non-GAAP financial measures in assessing the Company's performance when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods. Share-based compensation expenses are expected to vary depending on the number of new grants issued to both current and new employees and changes in the Company's stock price, stock market volatility, expected option term and risk-free interest rates, all of which are difficult to estimate. In calculating non-GAAP gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, adjusted EBITDA, net loss and net loss per share, management excludes certain non-cash and one-time items in order to facilitate comparability of the Company's operating performance on a period-to-period basis because such expenses are not, in management's view, related to the Company's ongoing operating performance. Management uses this view of the Company's operating performance for purposes of comparison with its business plan and individual operating budgets and in the allocation of resources.

The Company further believes that these non-GAAP financial measures are useful to investors in providing greater transparency to the information used by management in its operational decision-making. The Company believes that the use of non-GAAP gross profit, gross margin, operating expenses, adjusted EBITDA, net loss and net loss per share also facilitates a comparison of our underlying operating performance with that of other companies in our industry, which use similar non-GAAP financial measures to supplement their GAAP results.

In the future, the Company expects to continue to incur expenses similar to the non-GAAP adjustments described above, and exclusion of these items in the presentation of our non-GAAP financial measures should not be construed as an inference that these costs are unusual, infrequent or non-recurring. Investors and potential investors are cautioned that there are material limitations associated with the use of non-GAAP financial measures as an analytical tool. The limitations of relying on non-GAAP financial measures include, but are not limited to, the fact that other companies, including other companies in our industry, may calculate non-GAAP financial measures differently than we do, limiting their usefulness as a comparative tool.

Investors and potential investors are encouraged to review the reconciliation of our non-GAAP financial measures contained within this news release with our GAAP financial results.
